(1) Sub rule (23) of Rule 36 shall be substituted as under:—

“A person to whom a shop has been sold shall pay one-tenth of the annual licence fee within seven days of the auction (any deposit already made shall be taken into account, and any excess shall be either returned to him or credited to future payments), which for all intents and purposes, shall be treated as security for fulfilment of the terms and conditions of the licence and compliance with the provisions of the Excise Act, and the Rules. If the Presiding Officer is not satisfied as to identity and financial position of the bidders, the presiding Officer/Collector may demand 1/10th of the bid money being paid at once on the fall of hammer, or satisfactory security in the form of bank draft, surety of a respectable person or hypothecation of immovable property situated within Himachal Pradesh being furnished to the satisfaction of the Presiding Officer/Collector. Every person to whom a shop has been sold, shall pay balance in nine equal monthly instalments by the seventh of each month commencing from the month in which he begins his business. If the total amount is less than Rs. 100 it shall be payable in one sum unless the Collector for special reasons, allows payment to be made by instalments. If any person, whose bid has been accepted by the Presiding Officer at the auction fails to make the deposit of 1/10th of annual fee or if he refuses to accept the licence, the Collector may resell the licence either by public auction or private contract, and any deficiency in price and all expenses for such resale or attempted resale shall be recoverable from defaulting bidder in the manner laid down in Section 60 of the Punjab Excise Act, in addition to the interest thereon @6% per annum shall be chargeable.”.

(2) Sub-rule (24) of Rule 36 shall be substituted as under:—

“When a licence has been cancelled, the Collector may resell it by public auction or private contract and any deficiency in price and all expenses of such resale or attempted resale, after adjustment of the 1/10th of security deposited by the licences in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (23), shall be recoverable from the defaulting licences in the manner laid down in section 60 of the Excise Act. The licence shall be disposed of for a fixed sum. A literage rate shall not be accepted. —

The Collector shall communicate the result of such resale in a statement in Form M. 16 to the Financial Commissioner in the same manner as the ordinary auction results. On the Financial Commissioner's orders being received, the Excise and Taxation Officer/Assistant Excise and Taxation Officer, holding the charge of the district, shall communicate the change in the list of licenses to the Superintendent of Police of his district and to the manager of any distillery to whom a list of such licenses has been supplied already.

If the amount realised from the original licensee, including the initial deposit of one-tenth of the licence fee as security, and the amount of bid by the incoming licensee; together with the expenses, if any, of resale the deficiency must be recovered from the original licensee. If these amounts together are more than the amount previously bid, no refund shall be made to the original licensee.”.

AMENDMENTS

In the said rules:—

(1) Sub-Rule (21) of Rule 5.38 shall be substituted as under:—

“A person to whom a shop has been sold shall pay one-tenth of the annual licence fee within seven days of the auction (any deposit already made shall be taken into account, and any excess shall be either returned to him or credited to future payments), which for all intents and purposes, shall be treated as security for fulfilment of the terms and conditions of the licence and compliance with the provisions of the Excise Act and the Rules. If the Presiding Officer is not satisfied as to identity and financial position of the bidder, the Presiding Officer/Collector may demand 1/10th of the bid money being paid at once on the fall of hammer or satisfactory security in the form of bank draft, surety of a respectable person or hypothecation of immovable property situated within Himachal Pradesh being furnished to the satisfaction of the Presiding Officer/Collector. Every person to whom a shop has been sold, shall pay balance in nine equal monthly instalments by the seventh of the each month commencing from the month in which he begins his business. If the total amount is less than Rs. 100.00, it shall be payable in one sum unless the Collector for special reasons, allow payment to be made by instalments. If any person, whose bid has been accepted by the Presiding Officer, at the auction fails to make the deposit of 1/10th of annual fee or if he refuses to accept the licence, the Collector may resell the licence either by public auction or private contract, and any deficiency in price and all expenses for such resale or attempted resale shall be recoverable from defaulting bidder in the manner laid down in section 60 of the Punjab Excise Act, in addition to the interest thereon @6% per annum shall be chargeable.”.

(2) Sub-Rule (22) of Rule 5.38 shall be substituted as under:—

“When a licence has been cancelled, the Collector may resell it by public auction or private contract and any deficiency in price and all expenses of such resale or attempted resale, after adjustment of 1/10th of security deposited by the licensee in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (21) shall be recoverable from the defaulting licensee in the manner laid down in section 60 of the Excise Act. The licensee shall be disposed of for a fixed sum. A literage rate shall not be acceptable.

The Collector shall communicate the result of such resale in a statement in Form M-16 to the Financial Commissioner in the same manner as the ordinary auction results. On the Financial Commissioner's orders being received, the Excise and Taxation Officer/Assistant Excise and Taxation Officer, holding the charge of the district, shall communicate the change in the list of licensees to the Superintendent of Police of his district and to the manager of any distillery to whom a list of such licensee has been supplied already.

If the amount realised from the original licensee, including the initial deposit of one-tenth of the licence fee as security, and the amount of bid by the incoming licensee; together with the expenses, if any, of resale the deficiency must be recovered from the original licensee. If these amounts together are more than the amount previously bid, no refund shall be made to the original licensee.”.
